A Brief Look Inside:

In Born a Crime, comedian Trevor Noah shares his life experiences of growing up in South Africa during the apartheid. His mother was a black, Xhosa woman, and his father was a white man from Switzerland. At the time of his birth, interracial relationships were illegal, and his parents could have been punished to up to five years in prison. Born a Crime is the story of how Trevor Noah grew from a child to young man in a world where it was illegal for him to even exist. Born a Crime became a number one bestseller for The New York Times in 2017. It was called an "unforgettable memoir" by Parade and a "gift" by USA Today.
