Now her power has been unleashed, she must prepare for a war that's been brewing for centuries. Easier said than done when she doesn't have a clue what she's doing, and keeping it a secret isn't all it's cracked up to be, either.

She can't light a candle to save herself, her new employee may or may not be a fae spy, things are awkward with her new shapeshifter boyfriend, Boone, the entire village is planning their spring wedding...then her ex, Alex, shows up out of the blue. He wants her back, and he's not prepared to let her go without a fight. Talk about complicated.

The battles for magic and Skye's heart are on, but when a prophecy is delivered from an unlikely source, things get worse. Much worse.

Someone's trying to break the curse that's keeping the greatest evil Ireland's ever seen—the witch Carman—off its shores, and Skye is the key to breaking it. One thing's for certain, whoever's out for her blood can't get their hands on her, or the battle is over before it's even begun.

The race to stop Carman's return is on, and to save everyone she loves, Skye'll do anything.

And when she says anything, she means anything.
