Walking away from Elizabeth was the hardest thing I've ever had to do.

But I secured a multi-million dollar contract. I paid my fake fiancée and the deal is done, so her work is finished.

Except I can't get her off my mind.

My office is the only place of escape after her departure, but a tech conference in California forces me out. Forces me to have to interact with other people. When a lovely woman with platinum blonde hair, a sweet southern accent, and everything else about her reminds me of Elizabeth, I can't walk away. I like her. I miss Elizabeth. Maybe a little too much.
