Raising Teens In A Contrary Culture Download Online eBook Mark Gregston Free eBook PDF/ePub/Mobi/Mp3/Txt, Without question, most parents have said that they are glad they don't have to be raised in the current adolescent culture. The problem is, their teens do! The biggest challenge a parent faces is learning how to transfer the principles and values they hold dear, to their teen who is growing up in a contrary culture. Parents are frustrated with how to make an impact, and teens are equally unsatisfied and disappointed that they're not learning the necessary skills to make it in today's world.

Mark Gregston shares his wisdom gained from forty years of working and living with teens and helping their families. As the founder of Heartlight, a residential counseling center for struggling teens, Mark has gained proven insight and understanding, and now shares those concepts necessary for every parent to make a connection with their teen...a connection that offers real help, and ushers in hope for every teen.

Understanding the influences a teen must deal with today calls for a new way of parental engagement and a shift in parenting styles. Mark's authentic relational model will enlighten you with creative and successful ways to deal with today's issues and develop deeper relationships within your family!
