Shattered, Book Two, Eternal Brethren Military Romantic Suspense Series

Travis "Rock" Walker hasn't looked back since disappearing from his family's ranch to join the Navy. Nor does he feel any regret at leaving that life behind. All his time and energy on keeping the team safe while completing each mission assigned to the undercover motorcycle club, Eternal Brethren. If he has any regrets, it would be severing of a friendship with one very special woman.

Doctor Tessa Clark has suffered enough betrayal to last a lifetime. Her focus is firmly on her young son and thriving medical practice. A friendship with an outlaw biker, no matter how he touches her heart, does nothing for her standing in the community. Months later, after many lonely nights and long weekends, she wonders if tearing apart a valued friendship is worth the cost.

Extending a tentative olive branch not only brings their tenuous friendship back to life, but garners the attention of those who have a debt to settle with Rock and the Eternal Brethren. Men who don't care about using a woman as a shield to achieve their goals.

As their friendship grows stronger, Rock must take a difficult look at the cost to not only their lives, but the heart he's so doggedly guarded since his last night on the ranch. He may see himself as invincible, but falling for Tessa could strike a fatal blow. One he's determined to avoid.

Can Rock ensure her safety from the terror surrounding them while keeping his heart closeted away, protected from the woman he refuses to love?
